The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

GOUGH IN NEW YORK.—The Tribune of the 2d inst., has the following in its notice of Gough's speech at his reception in that city:

Gough spoke for two hours. His method is unchanged. His matter was the stock of his keen observation and remarkable experience among the miserable intemperate of the Old World. The discourse was illustrated with theatrical tableaux, clever compliments to the ladies, neat chimes on the pleasant metal of democracy, little touches of the tenderest and most natural affections, funny stories, solemn calls on God the Father and the Son, copious anecdotes of himself, and the intercourse he had in England with persons of rank, and proud reminiscences of the blessings invoked upon his head by poor creatures he saved from destruction. It was a strange mosaic of honest zeal and unshrinking vanity, of keen philosophy and extravagant assumption. The stream of his passionate eloquence flowed past scenes of touching desolation crowded with gloomy figures of despair. He drew the picture of bloated and cursing hags, whose fierce nature his kindness subdued and softened, in the streets and cellars of Dundee, of mothers praying for their poor boys, of pale sisters stitching their lives away to support drunken brothers, of husbands and wives brought together after a separation of years, and made happy by a simple pledge, of harlots and suicides, and showed a sympathy with all the forlorn humanity.

The audience lay like a nerve before the orator. There were moments when sobs went from end to end of the hall. Men and women shouted like children. When the applause came, it was like a storm;—and when the speaker tried to stop, cries urged him to keep on.

THE FRENCHMAN'S BILLIARDS.—The New York Tribune tells some large stories about the great French billiard champion, Mr. Barber. It says:

"Among the peculiar caroms, which it is impossible to describe without the aid of diagrams, may be mentioned one in which the balls, being placed at diagonal corners of the table, he makes a carom by striking the first ball, and bounding his own on the side cushion, on the top of which it rolls about half way, then falling on the table hits the object ball."

"He has the art of pumping or bouncing balls to perfection. One shot, which he makes with remarkable dexterity, is thus executed: A ball is placed some distance from the head of the table, and another between that and the top cushion; a cue being held over the object ball, he places his own ball near the third, strikes the object ball, jumps over the cue from the inside, comes back beneath and makes the shot. Placing one ball in a hat lying on the table, and alongside, he strikes the second, bounces his ball into the hat and caroms on the one there. Another which he is in the habit of playing consists in striking a ball on one table and bouncing his own on an adjacent table, where it caroms on another ball. This he did not attempt on the present occasion, however, as the tables were too remote. In fact, he seems to make all the "impossible" shots with perfect ease; how well he will play a counting or "winning" game remains to be seen."

MODERATE DRINKING.—Let no man say, when he thinks of the drunkard, broken in health, and spoiled in intellect, "I can never so fall." He once thought as little of falling in earlier years. The promise of his youth was as bright as yours, and even after he began his downward course, he was as unsuspicious as the firmest around him, and would repel, as indignantly the admonition to beware of intemperance. The danger of the vice lies in its almost imperceptible approach. Few who perish by it, have by its first excess. Youth does not suspect drunkenness in the sparkling beverage, which quickens all its susceptibilities of joy. The invalid does not see it in the cordial which gives new tone to his debilitated organs. The man of thought and genius detects no palsying poison in the draught which seems a spring of inspiration to intellect and imagination. The lover of social pleasure little dreams that the glass which animates conversation, will sink him too low for the intercourse in which he now delights. Intemperance comes with noiseless steps and binds the first cords too light to be felt. This truth of mournful experience should be treasured by all, and should influence the arguments and habits of social and demestic life in every class of community.—Dr. Channing.

THE NEW YORKERS AND THE PRINCE.—The New Yorkers, who proposed to show the whole world how a "live prince" should be entertained, have made a failure of it. The grand triumphal march up Broadway, where two hundred thousand people had assembled to see the Prince, was blunderingly delayed, until it became dark, and the populace could not tell which was the Prince and which the Mayor. The excursion about town was rather a bore, and a ruffian insulted and tried to strike the royal guest. The ball was to have been the great affair of the age, but the flour broke down, and when, sometime after midnight, the dancing commenced, it was in the midst of great confusion, and inside a railing.—Then when the Prince attempted to partake of supper, the room was "crowded to suffocation," and there was nothing resembling comfort to be had. So much for metropolitan hospitalities.

THE MENTAL GIANT WONDERED AT.—A Kansas correspondent of the New York Evening Post thus amusingly sketches the impression made upon his western auditors by Gov. Seward's personal presence:

"The crowd was too much awed by the reputation of the man to be very enthusiastic in its demonstrations of applause, and the general sentiment seemed to be one of surprise, that such a little, mild-mannered, respectable gentleman should have such a frightful reputation, and become such a terror to the slave holding portion of the country. The old Missouri farmers from the creek bottoms, the red-shirted rovers of the plains, the roughs and rowdies and subdued border ruffians of the early wars, all crowded round with opened mouths and distended eyes, almost gasping with interest to see and hear the man who had proclaimed the irrepressible conflict, and attempted to dissolve the Union. They evidently expected to see a great, brawny, double fisted, ferocious monster of muscle; and one back-woodsman, with a coon-skin cap, openly announced his dissatisfaction by declaring to his comrade that he could whip the little cuss with one hand."

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS AND BUILDERS.

Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable, and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

GOUGH IN NEW YORK.—The Tribune of the 2d inst., has the following in its notice of Gough's speech at his reception in that city:

Gough spoke for two hours. His method is unchanged. His matter was the stock of his keen observation and remarkable experience among the miserable intemperate of the Old World. The discourse was illustrated with theatrical tableaux, clever compliments to the ladies, neat chimes on the pleasant metal of democracy, little touches of the tenderest and most natural affections, funny stories, solemn calls on God the Father and the Son, copious anecdotes of himself, and the intercourse he had in England with persons of rank, and proud reminiscences of the blessings invoked upon his head by poor creatures he saved from destruction. It was a strange mosaic of honest zeal and unshrinking vanity, of keen philosophy and extravagant assumption. The stream of his passionate eloquence flowed past scenes of touching desolation crowded with gloomy figures of despair. He drew the picture of bloated and cursing hags, whose fierce nature his kindness subdued and softened, in the streets and cellars of Dundee, of mothers praying for their poor boys, of pale sisters stitching their lives away to support drunken brothers, of husbands and wives brought together after a separation of years, and made happy by a simple pledge, of harlots and suicides, and showed a sympathy with all the forlorn humanity.

The audience lay like a nerve before the orator. There were moments when sobs went from end to end of the hall. Men and women shouted like children. When the applause came, it was like a storm;—and when the speaker tried to stop, cries urged him to keep on.

THE FRENCHMAN'S BILLIARDS.—The New York Tribune tells some large stories about the great French billiard champion, Mr. Barber. It says:

"Among the peculiar caroms, which it is impossible to describe without the aid of diagrams, may be mentioned one in which the balls, being placed at diagonal corners of the table, he makes a carom by striking the first ball, and bounding his own on the side cushion, on the top of which it rolls about half way, then falling on the table hits the object ball."

"He has the art of pumping or bouncing balls to perfection. One shot, which he makes with remarkable dexterity, is thus executed: A ball is placed some distance from the head of the table, and another between that and the top cushion; a cue, being held over the object ball, he places his own ball near the third, strikes the object ball, jumps over the cue from the inside, comes back beneath and makes the shot. Placing one ball in a hat lying on the table, and alongside, he strikes the second, bounces his ball into the hat and caroms on the one there. Another which he is in the habit of playing consists in striking a ball on one table and bouncing his own on an adjacent table, where it caroms on another ball. This he did not attempt on the present occasion, however, as the tables were too remote. In fact, he seems to make all the "impossible" shots with perfect ease; how well he will play a counting or "winning" game remains to be seen."

MODERATE DRINKING.—Let no man say, when he thinks of the drunkard, broken in health, and spoiled in intellect, "I can never so fall." He once thought as little of falling in earlier years. The promise of his youth was as bright as yours, and even after he began his downward course, he was as unsuspicious as the firmest around him, and would repel, as indignantly the admonition to beware of intemperance. The danger of the vice lies in its almost imperceptible approach. Few who perish by it, have by its first excess. Youth does not suspect drunkenness in the sparkling beverage, which quickens all its susceptibilities of joy. The invalid does not see it in the cordial which gives new tone to his debilitated organs. The man of thought and genius detects no palsying poison in the draught which seems a spring of inspiration to intellect and imagination. The lover of social pleasure little dreams that the glass which animates conversation, will sink him too low for the intercourse in which he now delights. Intemperance comes with noiseless steps and binds the first cords too light to be felt. This truth of mournful experience should be treasured by all, and should influence the arguments and habits of social and demestic life in every class of community.—Dr. Channing.

THE NEW YORKERS AND THE PRINCE.—The New Yorkers, who proposed to show the whole world how a "live prince" should be entertained, have made a failure of it. The grand triumphal march up Broadway, where two hundred thousand people had assembled to see the Prince, was blunderingly delayed, until it became dark, and the populace could not tell which was the Prince and which the Mayor. The excursion about town was rather a bore, and a ruffian insulted and tried to strike the royal guest. The ball was to have been the great affair of the age, but the flour broke down, and when, sometime after midnight, the dancing commenced, it was in the midst of great confusion, and inside a railing.—Then when the Prince attempted to partake of supper, the room was "crowded to suffocation," and there was nothing resembling comfort to be had. So much for metropolitan hospitalities.

THE MENTAL GIANT WONDERED AT.—A Kansas correspondent of the New York Evening Post thus amusingly sketches the impression made upon his western auditors by Gov. Seward's personal presence:

"The crowd was too much awed by the reputation of the man to be very enthusiastic in its demonstrations of applause, and the general sentiment seemed to be one of surprise, that such a little, mild-mannered, respectable gentleman should have such a frightful reputation, and become such a terror to the slave holding portion of the country. The old Missouri farmers from the creek bottoms, the red-shirted rovers of the plains, the roughs and rowdies and subdued border ruffians of the early wars, all crowded round with opened mouths and distended eyes, almost gasping with interest to see and hear the man who had proclaimed the irrepressible conflict, and attempted to dissolve the Union. They evidently expected to see a great, brawny, double fisted, ferocious monster of muscle; and one back-woodsman, with a coon-skin cap, openly announced his dissatisfaction by declaring to his comrade that he could whip the little cuss with one hand."

Which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city.

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material.

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone
of every description,
PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN
of any required dimension.
Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

☞ All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

GOUGH IN NEW YORK.—The Tribune of the 2d inst., has the following in its notice of Gough's speech at his reception in that city:

Gough spoke for two hours. His method is unchanged. His matter was the stock of his keen observation and remarkable experience among the miserable intemperate of the Old World. The discourse was illustrated with theatrical tableaux, clever compliments to the ladies, neat chimes on the pleasant metal of democracy, little touches of the tenderest and most natural affections, funny stories, solemn calls on God the Father and the Son, copious anecdotes of himself, and the intercourse he had in England with persons of rank, and proud reminiscences of the blessings invoked upon his head by poor creatures he saved from destruction. It was a strange mosaic of honest zeal and unshrinking vanity, of keen philosophy and extravagant assumption. The stream of his passionate eloquence flowed past scenes of touching desolation crowded with gloomy figures of despair. He drew the picture of bloated and cursing hags, whose fierce nature his kindness subdued and softened, in the streets and cellars of Dundee, of mothers praying for their poor boys, of pale sisters stitching their lives away to support drunken brothers, of husbands and wives brought together after a separation of years, and made happy by a simple pledge, of harlots and suicides, and showed a sympathy with all the forlorn humanity.

The audience lay like a nerve before the orator. There were moments when sobs went from end to end of the hall. Men and women shouted like children. When the applause came, it was like a storm;—and when the speaker tried to stop, cries urged him to keep on.

THE FRENCHMAN'S BILLIARDS.—The New York Tribune tells some large stories about the great French billiard champion, Mr. Barber. It says:

"Among the peculiar caroms, which it is impossible to describe without the aid of diagrams, may be mentioned one in which the balls, being placed at diagonal corners of the table, he makes a carom by striking the first ball, and bounding his own on the side cushion, on the top of which it rolls about half way, then falling on the table hits the object ball."

"He has the art of pumping or bouncing balls to perfection. One shot, which he makes with remarkable dexterity, is thus executed: A ball is placed some distance from the head of the table, and another between that and the top cushion; a cue being held over the object ball, he places his own ball near the third, strikes the object ball, jumps over the cue from the inside, comes back beneath and makes the shot. Placing one ball in a hat lying on the table, and alongside, he strikes the second, bounces his ball into the hat and caroms on the one there. Another which he is in the habit of playing consists in striking a ball on one table and bouncing his own on an adjacent table, where it caroms on another ball. This he did not attempt on the present occasion, however, as the tables were too remote. In fact, he seems to make all the "impossible" shots with perfect ease; how well he will play a counting or "winning" game remains to be seen."

MODERATE DRINKING.—Let no man say, when he thinks of the drunkard, broken in health, and spoiled in intellect, "I can never so fall." He once thought as little of falling in earlier years. The promise of his youth was as bright as yours, and even after he began his downward course, he was as unsuspicious as the firmest around him, and would repel, as indignantly the admonition to beware of intemperance. The danger of the vice lies in its almost imperceptible approach. Few who perish by it, have by its first excess. Youth does not suspect drunkenness in the sparkling beverage, which quickens all its susceptibilities of joy. The invalid does not see it in the cordial which gives new tone to his debilitated organs. The man of thought and genius detects no palsying poison in the draught which seems a spring of inspiration to intellect and imagination. The lover of social pleasure little dreams that the glass which animates conversation, will sink him too low for the intercourse in which he now delights. Intemperance comes with noiseless steps and binds the first cords too light to be felt. This truth of mournful experience should be treasured by all, and should influence the arguments and habits of social and domestic life in every class of community.—Dr. Channing.

THE NEW YORKERS AND THE PRINCE.—The New Yorkers, who proposed to show the whole world how a "live prince" should be entertained, have made a failure of it. The grand triumphal march up Broadway, where two hundred thousand people had assembled to see the Prince, was blunderingly delayed, until it became dark, and the populace could not tell which was the Prince and which the Mayor. The excursion about town was rather a bore, and a ruffian insulted and tried to strike the royal guest. The ball was to have been the great affair of the age, but the flour broke down, and when, sometime after midnight, the dancing commenced, it was in the midst of great confusion, and inside a railing.—Then when the Prince attempted to partake of supper, the room was "crowded to suffocation," and there was nothing resembling comfort to be had. So much for metropolitan hospitalities.

THE MENTAL GIANT WONDERED AT.—A Kansas correspondent of the New York Evening Post thus amusingly sketches the impression made upon his western auditors by Gov. Seward's personal presence:

"The crowd was too much awed by the reputation of the man to be very enthusiastic in its demonstrations of applause, and the general sentiment seemed to be one of surprise, that such a little, mild-mannered, respectable gentleman should have such a frightful reputation, and become such a terror to the slave-holding portion of the country. The old Missouri farmers from the creek bottoms, the red-shirted rovers of the plains, the roughs and rowdies and subdued border ruffians of the early wars, all crowded round with opened mouths and distended eyes, almost gasping with interest to see and hear the man who had proclaimed the irrepressible conflict, and attempted to dissolve the Union. They evidently expected to see a great, brawny, double fisted, ferocious monster of muscle; and one back-woodsman, with a coon-skin cap, openly announced his dissatisfaction by declaring to his comrade that he could whip the little cuss with one hand."

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

DEMOCRATIC ROWDYISM AT WATERTOWN.—Last Monday evening there was a large meeting of republicans at Watertown, to hear Mr. Grow of Pennsylvania. He, however, did not arrive, in season. There were about 400 Wide Awakes present, and while proceeding peaceably through the streets, they were assaulted by a band of rowdy Douglas men, who threw stones and billets of wood at them. One republican was badly hurt by these missels, when the rowdies were charged upon and "cleaned out" by the Wide Awakes.

The Republican says:

Messrs. Billinghurst, Holmes, Barber and Enos addressed the people from a balcony. They were continually interrupted by the democratic crowd. During the speeches, stones and clubs were thrown among the republicans, in many cases knocking men down. Laying aside all questions of political difference, it does seem as though it was the duty of the people to change the officers of the county. Not a single arrest was made in the mob during the evening, although several democratic officers were present and must have seen some of the numerous assaults made upon the Wide Awakes, who peaceably marched the street.

☞ The republicans had a rousing meeting at Fort Atkinson on Saturday. Gov. Randall and Judge Howe were the speakers. The Standard says that five weeks ago there was not a Wide Awake company in the county; now there are six or seven companies. The number of Wide Awakes at this meeting was 650.

The Sandusky Register says that the indications pretty clearly determine that a fusion has been agreed upon by the Bell-Douglas leaders in Ohio.—Exchange.

Suppose there has been—there was a complete fusion against Judge Brinkerhoof, still he is elected by 20,000 majority.

MORE KIDNAPPING.—The Dubuque Herald states that Wilder, the supposed kidnapper of Jerry Boyd and family of Galena, has been twice in that city with a view of procuring colored help for his farm.—He arrived there about seven weeks ago, and engaged Mrs. Mary Savalla and a colored man whom he took off with him, since which time nothing has been heard of them.

There is but little doubt that Jerry Boyd was murdered and his family carried off and sold into slavery in Mitsouri, by this villain Wilder.

☞ If the people of a territory, which belongs to the whole country, ought to govern themselves and do as they please, as Douglas pretends, why did the Kansas-Nebraska bill intervene and deprive them of the power of electing their governor and their judges? If the people of a territory are sovereign, what right has congress to pass laws for them at all, regulating the manner of instituting their territorial government, and telling them when they shall form a state constitution, and how it shall be submitted to the people for their decision?

Will some crazy popular sovereignty Douglasite answer?

A Hudson correspondent of the Dunn County Lumberman, says, "set St. Croix county down for 250 majority for the republicans this fall."

A member of the Knowall Discussion Forum has propounded the following:—"When an irresistible body meets an immovable body, what is the consequence?"

The Troubled Waters of the Democracy.

The democracy, of all stripes and hues, are in deep trouble about these days. They see "Old Abe" looming up in the west, and their knees tremble as a sudden fear creeps over them. The 6th of November is hastening on—the 4th of March follows—and after that, no more office, no more revellings in the treasury, no more power!

In their misfortunes, they fall to cursing each other. Gov. Letcher of Virginia has been at Washington, and he curses ferociously at the condition of affairs. The Bell Everett party damn their luck; the Douglasites are too full to speak, they cannot do the subject justice; the Breckinridge men are cooler than the others, but they cannot forego the occasion to give the two other factions "hail Columbia," for not fusing in one or two large states, so that there might be no election by the people. Then that stupid old dolt from Oregon, Lane, would be elected by the senate, and the power would continue, for a time, with the Bourbons of the south.

It is even rumored that propositions have been made to drop all the opposition candidates, and nominate a new independent candidate. IT IS TOO LATE, as was said to the Duke of Orleans after the republic was declared in France. It is too late, for fusions for new nominations, for any new programme—the people cannot be managed. They will have a change in the administration of the country. It is so written, and the signs of the times prove it. The only wise course for our opponents is to submit gracefully—acquiesce in what cannot be helped.

But they won't take this advice. They now shout that New York must be carried, and all eyes are turned towards the Empire State. The leader of the Satanic hosts, the Herald, gives up every thing, outside of the state of New York, but with money enough, it hopes that New York may retrieve the field. It begs of the merchants of New York city to raise one million of dollars to beat Lincoln. But money won't save them, though they had thousands to offer for every vote. It is well that the last charge of the enemy, before Waterloo overwhelms, is to be made upon New York. It is precisely what the brave and true republicans of that state desire, above all things. They will do their duty when the hour comes, and Seward's prediction of SIXTY THOUSAND republican majority for ABRAHAM LINCOLN, in the Empire State, will be verified.

ENTHUSIASTIC DEMOCRATIC DEMONSTRATION IN THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—We are informed by an eye-witness, that on yesterday, pursuant to public notice, the democracy of Walworth were to be addressed by J. E. Arnold and Mat H. Carpenter, at Elkhorn. Mr. Arnold appeared, but Mat knew better and sent an excuse in the shape of Mr. Palmer of Milwaukee

On the arrival of the train, the speakers were met at the depot by 27 boys, ranging ing from 7 to 15 years of age, each provided with cap and torch, and understood to be the Elkhorn Douglas Volunteers, and who were advertised to give a torch light exhibition. They had a drum and fife, and were accompanied by 24 men in citizen's dress. This was the number, by actual count, in the procession as they marched from the cars to the hotel. The speakers looked mortified, and well they might feel so, for a more woe-begone looking set than those in the escort, you would not find in a day's travel.

It was the day of the county convention, but the posters, notices, and the convention, all failed to bring any crowd. No one seemed to take any interest in the convention or speakers. It was worse than the morning reception of Mr. Douglas by the Giants from Green county. A few more such gatherings and the friends of the "Little Giant" will give up the effort in southern Wisconsin to preserve their organization. They are on their last legs; their coat tails are too near the ground, and with an inclination towards the dirt.

ATTACK ON THE WIDE AWAKES OF WHEELING, VA.—The Wide Awakes of Wheeling, Va., turned out on the night of the 11th, in procession. A crowd of ruffians attacked them with stones and other missiles, but not succeeded in breaking up the procession, the streets were blocked with draws and other obstructions. The Wide Awakes removed these obstacles, when the ruffians rushed on them. A fight ensued, and shots were fired, the Wide Awakes laying about them with their torches. The Intelligencer says:

"If these ruffians suppose that they can prevent the Wide Awakes from turning out, when and where they please, they are mistaken. If the city is under the control of a lawless set of ignorant, intolerant rascals, who thus endanger the peace and property of the city and the lives of its men, women and children, the Wide Awakes are not responsible."

There are now three large and well organized companies of Wide Awakes in Wheeling, and they are composed of the sort of men who understand how to "hoe their own row."

The Springfield State Register, Douglas' central organ in Illinois says the "Americans" voted with the republicans and that Pennsylvania and Indiana were thus carried.

Douglas himself declares that the Breckinridge party of those states voted with the republicans, and thus accounts for the results.

The Pennsylvanian, on the contrary, says that the Douglas men voted for Curtin and elected him. These contradictory stories prove that they are all mistaken—that it was the people who are tired of all these miserable factions, who joined the republicans and elected Curtin.

MORE DEMOCRATIC ROWDYISM.—As a little boy by the name of Clark, a son of Aaron Clark, was in the procession of the Wide Awakes in Racine, on Monday evening, a brick was thrown into the crowd, and he was struck on the head back of the ear and badly hurt. It is such acts as these perpetrated by those who must be democrats that give character to the democratic party.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Colonel Hugh Forbes, whose name figured so extensively during the John Brown excitement, and latterly, has been in the employ of Garibaldi at Mezzina, in Sicily, is said to be out of office once more. He was found to be incompetent and impracticable, a disturber of the peace, and an oppressor of the officers under him; therefore, he has been superceded, and goes about Sicily denouncing Garibaldi and Victor Emanuel.

The Chicago, Alton and St. Louis railroad company refused to carry republicans to the Seward demonstration in Chicago, but carried Douglas men to see the "Little Giant" at reduced fare.

THE VIRGINIA SCARE.—The Boston Journal says: "As we suspected, the reported negro plot in Prince Anne county, Va., turns out to be a 'scare.' Though a number of arrests have been made, the Norfolk Herald of Monday, admits that the evidence is weak. It says that 'the revalations of the negroes arrested are highly improbable. Whatever alarm was at first experienced has subsided, and the country is all quiet.'"

Hon. Bertine Pinckney is the captain of a Wide Awake club formed at Rosendale, Fond du Lac county, by the farmers of that region.

John M. Botts, in his speech at Richmond, proposed, in case Lincoln is elected, to take the contract to fill all his appointments from South Carolina.

An Iowa farmer who failed to sell his land last spring at $20 per acre, netted $23 per acre from the prolific crop he has just harvested. That is rather better than selling out.

A bear weighing two hundred and thirty pounds was shot near Rome, New York, last week.

It is said that the state of Michigan, which made its deposits in the Artizan's Bank of New York, will lose a large amount by the failure of that institution.

By a late copy of the Denver Evening News, we see that Jack Langrishe has just opened a theatre in that outpost of gold hunters. He had a large company of actors with him.

The Toledo Blade has seen but one democrat who took the result of the Pennsylvania election "easy." He was hurrahing for Jackson!

The official report shows that 19,364 Wide Awakes participated in the grand parade in New York.

☞ The richest man in St. Louis is Jas. H. Lucas, banker, worth, it said, $5,000,000. Peter Lindell's estate is put down at $4,600,000. That of Benoist, banker, at $1,500,000.

The democratic nomination for the state senate in Winnebago county has been tendered successively to Curtis Reed, Gabriel Bouck and Eli Stillson, and declined by each, as neither aspire to the honor of a defeat.

A "hooped skirt" arrangement has been adopted by male dandies, to be worn on the chest for the laudable purpose of preventing the rumpling of the shirt bosom. It is formed of steel ribs, and is fastened around the body by means of hooks and eyes.

The choir of Trinity Church, New York, made its first appearance in surplices, on Sunday before last.

THE LATE SYRIAN MASSACRES.—The Druses have published a formal vindication of their recent conduct. They claim that the blame rests with the Maronites. They affirm that the Maronites have for years been laying plots to expel them from Lebanon, and that their own course was only in self-defense.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Philander Everson, an old and much respected citizen of Lake Mills, was instantly killed on Saturday night last by being thrown from his wagon. He was returning from the republican meeting at Jefferson, when his wagon struck a stump in the road with such force as to throw out his wife and child, when his team ran away throwing him against a fence. His loss is much lamented by the citizens of Lake Mills.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Peter Patton (an Irish woman,) was caught by an upright revolving shaft in the "Farmer's & Merchant's Mill," of Monroe, on Saturday last and badly wounded—probably killed, says the Monroe Sentinel. Mrs Patton was whirled round and round at the rate of 100 revolutions to the minute—the left arm and hand broken, left knee dislocated and broken, head and face badly bruised, and a lacerated incision through the integuments and into the abdominal muscles of the left side some five or six inches long.

MESSRS. MCKEE & FISHBACK:—Returns from the various county organizations and clubs, to this office, show a republican strength in this state of thirty-eight thousand five hundred votes. HON. LUTHER HANCHETT AT LACROSSE.—On Saturday evening, the Wide-Awakes of La Crosse had a gay turn-out; and, after a splendid street-parade, called at the Augusta House and escorted Mr. Hanchett, the republican candidate for congress, to Barron's Hall, where a good audience of ladies and gentlemen were assembled. The hall was full to overflowing. The glee club contributed to the interest of the evening by several excellent songs. Mr. Hanchett, whose health is very peor, made a speech of great power; and impressed the audience favorably, by his compactness, solidity and grasp of thought, and by his earnest and manly style of speech. He is a vigorous-minded man, and will be respected in congress. Mr. Hanchett has been urged, by good medical advisers, to avoid public speaking, until his lungs recover strength. While speaking he was again admonished of the danger of disobeying that advice, and was abliged to discontinue his able speech after speaking about thirty minutes. —La Crosse Republican.

Riding in Central Park is the great feature for Saturdays in New York. Sometimes 4000 vehicles enter that magnificent enclosure in a single day, besides equestrians and foot-walkers almost without number. By actual count, the number of visitors occasionally reaches full 20,000 a day, but is exceedingly variable, depending not only on the state of the weather, but upon the day of the week. The architectural works with which the Park abounds, surpass, in some instances, anything to be found elsewhere in the city. At the grand Terrace, which commands a view of the lake, at the mall, there has already been expended $50,000, chiefly in masonry—and the expenditure yet contemplated at this point will perhaps double these figures.—The bridges erected over the water, or at the intersection of different roads, are most of them exquisite specimens of workmanship. One bridge cost as much as $26,000, and several others very considerable sums. The iron bridges, though less expensive, generally cost from $3000 to $6000. Special attention is now being devoted to the planting of large trees, for which the requisite machinery will be employed, after the manner adopted in France.

There has been performed at the prison, during the past season an immense amount of labor in the stone department. We understand that over THREE THOUSAND YARDS have been laid, of rough cut stone wall, with an average of less than fifty hands, including the quarrying and hauling of the stone—burning of the lime, and, in fine, everything connected with the building of the wall; excluding, also, the erection of two octogons. This is by far the largest amount of work that has been done in any previous session; and, must commend itself to the favorable attention of those citizens who take an interest in the character and improvement of this, our most important state institution; as well as the use to which the labor of our state convicts is applied; and we may add, the action of the administration having them in charge.—Waupun Prison City Item.

The Albany and Vermont railroad is the first instance in which a railroad has been abandoned and the rails removed. The removal was going on at the rate of a mile a day, when stopped by injunction.

DEMOCRATIC ROWDYISM AT WATERTOWN.—Last Monday evening there was a large meeting of republicans at Watertown, to hear Mr. Grow of Pennsylvania. He, however, did not arrive, in season. There were about 400 Wide Awakes present, and while proceeding peaceably through the streets, they were assaulted by a band of rowdy Douglas men, who threw stones and billets of wood at them. One republican was badly hurt by these missels, when the rowdies were charged upon and "cleaned out" by the Wide Awakes.

The Republican says:

Messrs. Billinghurst, Holmes, Barber and Enos addressed the people from a balcony. They were continually interrupted by the democratic crowd. During the speeches, stones and clubs were thrown among the republicans, in many cases knocking men down. Laying aside all questions of political difference, it does seem as though it was the duty of the people to change the officers of the county. Not a single arrest was made in the mob during the evening, although several democratic officers were present and must have seen some of the numerous assaults made upon the Wide Awakes, who peaceably marched the street.

☞ The republicans had a rousing meeting at Fort Atkinson on Saturday. Gov. Randall and Judge Howe were the speakers. The Standard says that five weeks ago there was not a Wide Awake company in the county; now there are six or seven companies. The number of Wide Awakes at this meeting was 650.

The Sandusky Register says that the indications pretty clearly determine that a fusion has been agreed upon by the Bell-Douglas leaders in Ohio.—Exchange.

Suppose there has been—there was a complete fusion against Judge Brinkerhoof, still he is elected by 20,000 majority.

MORE KIDNAPPING.—The Dubuque Herald states that Wilder, the supposed kidnapper of Jerry Boyd and family of Galena, has been twice in that city with a view of procuring colored help for his farm.—He arrived there about seven weeks ago, and engaged Mrs. Mary Savalla and a colored man whom he took off with him, since which time nothing has been heard of them.

There is but little doubt that Jerry Boyd was murdered and his family carried off and sold into slavery in Missouri, by this villain Wilder.

☞ If the people of a territory, which belongs to the whole country, ought to govern themselves and do as they please, as Douglas pretends, why did the Kansas-Nebraska bill intervene and deprive them of the power of electing their governor and their judges? If the people of a territory are sovereign, what right has congress to pass laws for them at all, regulating the manner of instituting their territorial government, and telling them when they shall form a state constitution, and how it shall be submitted to the people for their decision?

Will some crazy popular sovereignty Douglasite answer?

A Hudson correspondent of the Dunn County Lumberman, says, "set St. Croix county down for 250 majority for the republicans this fall."

A member of the Knowall Discussion Forum has propounded the following:—"When an irresistible body meets an immovable body, what is the consequence?"

The Troubled Waters of the Democracy.

The democracy, of all stripes and hues, are in deep trouble about these days. They see "Old Abe" looming up in the west, and their knees tremble as a sudden fear creeps over them. The 6th of November is hastening on—the 4th of March follows—and after that, no more office, no more revellings in the treasury, no more power!

In their misfortunes they fall to cursing each other. Gov. Letcher of Virginia has been at Washington, and he curses ferociously at the condition of affairs. The Bell Everett party damn their luck; the Douglasites are too full to speak, they cannot do the subject justice; the Breckinridge men are cooler than the others, but they cannot forego the occasion to give the two other factions "hail Columbia," for not fusing in one or two large states, so that there might be no election by the people. Then that stupid old dolt from Oregon, Lane, would be elected by the senate, and the power would continue, for a time, with the Bourbons of the south.

It is even rumored that propositions have been made to drop all the opposition candidates, and nominate a new independent candidate. IT IS TOO LATE, as was said to the Duke of Orleans after the republic was declared in France. It is too late, for fusions for new nominations, for any new programme—the people cannot be managed. They will have a change in the administration of the country. It is so written, and the signs of the times prove it. The only wise course for our opponents is to submit gracefully—acquiesce in what cannot be helped.

But they won't take this advice. They now shout that New York must be carried, and all eyes are turned towards the Empire State. The leader of the Satanic hosts, the Herald, gives up every thing, outside of the state of New York, but with money enough, it hopes that New York may retrieve the field. It begs of the merchants of New York city to raise one million of dollars to beat Lincoln. But money won't save them, though they had thousands to offer for every vote. It is well that the last charge of the enemy, before Waterloo overwhelms, is to be made upon New York. It is precisely what the brave and true republicans of that state desire, above all things. They will do their duty when the hour comes, and Seward's prediction of SIXTY THOUSAND republican majority for ABRAHAM LINCOLN, in the Empire State, will be verified.

ENTHUSIASTIC DEMOCRATIC DEMONSTRATION IN THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—We are informed by an eye-witness, that on yesterday, pursuant to public notice, the democracy of Walworth were to be addressed by J. E. Arnold and Mat H. Carpenter, at Elkhorn. Mr. Arnold appeared, but Mat knew better and sent an excuse in the shape of Mr. Palmer of Milwaukee

On the arrival of the train, the speakers were met at the depot by 27 boys, ranging from 7 to 15 years of age, each provided with cap and torch, and understood to be the Elkhorn Douglas Volunteers, and who were advertised to give a torch light exhibition. They had a drum and fife, and were accompanied by 24 men in citizen's dress. This was the number, by actual count, in the procession as they marched from the cars to the hotel. The speakers looked mortified, and well they might feel so, for a more woe-begone looking set than those in the escort, you would not find in a day's travel.

It was the day of the county convention, but the posters, notices, and the convention, all failed to bring any crowd. No one seemed to take any interest in the convention or speakers. It was worse than the morning reception of Mr. Douglas by the Giants from Green county. A few more such gatherings and the friends of the "Little Giant" will give up the effort in southern Wisconsin to preserve their organization. They are on their last legs; their coat tails are too near the ground, and with an inclination towards the dirt.

ATTACK ON THE WIDE AWAKES OF WHEELING, VA.—The Wide Awakes of Wheeling, Va., turned out on the night of the 11th, in procession. A crowd of ruffians attacked them with stones and other missiles, but not succeeded in breaking up the procession, the streets were blocked with draws and other obstructions. The Wide Awakes removed these obstacles, when the ruffians rushed on them. A fight ensued, and shots were fired, the Wide Awakes laying about them with their torches. The Intelligencer says:

"If these ruffians suppose that they can prevent the Wide Awakes from turning out, when and where they please, they are mistaken. If the city is under the control of a lawless set of ignorant, intolerant rascals, who thus endanger the peace and property of the city and the lives of its men, women and children, the Wide Awakes are not responsible."

There are now three large and well organized companies of Wide Awakes in Wheeling, and they are composed of the sort of men who understand how to "hoe their own row."

The Springfield State Register, Douglas' central organ in Illinois says the "Americans" voted with the republicans and that Pennsylvania and Indiana were thus carried.

Douglas himself declares that the Breckinridge party of those states voted with the republicans, and thus accounts for the results.

The Pennsylvanian, on the contrary, says that the Douglas men voted for Curtin and elected him. These contradictory stories prove that they are all mistaken—that it was the people who are tired of all these miserable factions, who joined the republicans and elected Curtin.

MORE DEMOCRATIC ROWDYISM.—As a little boy by the name of Clark, a son of Aaron Clark, was in the procession of the Wide Awakes in Racine, on Monday evening, a brick was thrown into the crowd, and he was struck on the head back of the ear and badly hurt. It is such acts as these perpetrated by those who must be democrats that give character to the democratic party.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Colonel Hugh Forbes, whose name figured so extensively during the John Brown excitement, and latterly, has been in the employ of Garibaldi at Mezzina, in Sicily, is said to be out of office once more. He was found to be incompetent and impracticable, a disturber of the peace, and an oppressor of the officers under him; therefore, he has been superceded, and goes about Sicily denouncing Garibaldi and Victor Emanuel.

The Chicago, Alton and St. Louis railroad company refused to carry republicans to the Seward demonstration in Chicago, but carried Douglas men to see the "Little Giant" at reduced fare.

THE VIRGINIA SCARE.—The Boston Journal says: "As we suspected, the reported negro plot in Prince Anne county, Va., turns out to be a 'scare.' Though a number of arrests have been made, the Norfolk Herald of Monday, admits that the evidence is weak. It says that 'the revalations of the negroes arrested are highly improbable. Whatever alarm was at first experienced has subsided, and the country is all quiet.'"

Hon. Bertine Pinckney is the captain of a Wide Awake club formed at Rosendale, Fond du Lac county, by the farmers of that region.

John M. Botts, in his speech at Richmond, proposed, in case Lincoln is elected, to take the contract to fill all his appointments from South Carolina.

An Iowa farmer who failed to sell his land last spring at $20 per acre, netted $23 per acre from the prolific crop he has just harvested. That is rather better than selling out.

A bear weighing two hundred and thirty pounds was shot near Rome, New York, last week.

It is said that the state of Michigan, which made its deposits in the Artizan's Bank of New York, will lose a large amount by the failure of that institution.

By a late copy of the Denver Evening News, we see that Jack Langrishe has just opened a theatre in that outpost of gold hunters. He had a large company of actors with him.

The Toledo Blade has seen but one democrat who took the result of the Pennsylvania election "easy." He was hurrahing for Jackson!

The official report shows that 19,364 Wide Awakes participated in the grand parade in New York.

☞ The richest man in St. Louis is Jas. H. Lucas, banker, worth, it said, $5,000,000. Peter Lindell's estate is put down at $4,600,000. That of Benoist, banker, at $1,500,000.

The democratic nomination for the state senate in Winnebago county has been tendered successively to Curtis Reed, Gabriel Bouck and Eli Stillson, and declined by each, as neither aspire to the honor of a defeat.

A "hooped skirt" arrangement has been adopted by male dandies, to be worn on the chest for the laudable purpose of preventing the rumpling of the shirt bosom. It is formed of steel ribs, and is fastened around the body by means of hooks and eyes.

The choir of Trinity Church, New York, made its first appearance in surplices, on Sunday before last.

Tom Thumb has joined the Little Giant club at Bridgeport, Conn.

Mr. Herschel V. Johnson promised to address the fusionists of Buffalo on Wednesday evening last, but he didn't appear; the occasion was too solemn.

The National Inteligencer is quoting from the electioneering literature of 1844, which predicted the destruction of the Union if Henry Clay was elected, to show the fallacy of similar predictions now.

The Chicago and Northwestern road has bought the iron for the extension of the road to Appleton. The payment is to be made in bonds at eighty per cent. for iron at $43 per ton.

Patrick McGinnis, Eden, Fond du Lac county, had his leg broken on Saturday night last, by falling from his wagon and being run over by the wheels.

Hon. S. W, Beal, who has just returned from Pike's Peak, says he has turned in for Abe Lincoln.

MINUS 1,000.—There was a mis'ake made in the publication of the official vote of Philadelphia at the recent election, in the papers of that city. The democratic majority, instead of being 2,886 is only 1,886.

On Sunday night of last week, a negro in attempting to escape with some stolen bacon, (the owner being in pursuit,) jumped down a precipice thirty feet high and was instantly killed, in Lynchgurgh, Va.

Barnum's Museum, New York, narrowly escaped destruction on Wednesday night, one of the transparencies taking fire.

THE LATE SYRIAN MASSACRES.—The Druses have published a formal vindication of their recent conduct. They claim that the blame rests with the Maronites. They affirm that the Maronites have for years been laying plots to expel them from Lebanon, and that their own course was only in self-defense.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Philander Everson, an old and much respected citizen of Lake Mills, was instantly killed on Saturday night last by being thrown from his wagon. He was returning from the republican meeting at Jefferson, when his wagon struck a stump in the road with such force as to throw out his wife and child, when his team ran away throwing him against a fence. His loss is much lamented by the citizens of Lake Mills.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Peter Patton (an Irish woman,) was caught by an upright revolving shaft in the "Farmer's & Merchant's Mill," of Monroe, on Saturday last and badly wounded—probably killed, says the Monroe Sentinel. Mrs Patton was whirled round and round at the rate of 100 revolutions to the minute—the left arm and hand broken, left knee dislocated and broken, head and face badly bruised, and a lacerated incision through the integuments and into the abdominal muscles of the left side some five or six inches long.

[Special dispatch from California to the Mo. Democrat.]

OFFICE REPUBLICAN STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE,
San Francisco, October 24th, 1860.

MESSRS. McKEE & FISHBACK:—Returns from the various county organizations and clubs, to this office, show a republican strength in this state of thirty-eight thousand five hundred votes. If the news from the October elections in the east should prove to be such as we hope for and expect, this state is certain for Lincoln. On this you may rely.

WM. RABE, Sec'y.

HON. LUTHER HANCHETT AT LACROSSE.—On Saturday evening, the Wide-Awakes of La Crosse had a gay turn-out; and, after a splendid street-parade, called at the Augusta House and escorted Mr. Hanchett, the republican candidate for congress, to Barron's Hall, where a good audience of ladies and gentlemen were assembled. The hall was full to overflowing. The glee club contributed to the interest of the evening by several excellent songs. Mr. Hanchett, whose health is very poor, made a speech of great power; and impressed the audience favorably, by his compactness, solidity and grasp of thought, and by his earnest and manly style of speech. He is a vigorous-minded man, and will be respected in congress. Mr. Hanchett has been urged, by good medical advisers, to avoid public speaking, until his lungs recover strength. While speaking he was again admonished of the danger of disobeying that advice, and was abliged to discontinue his able speech after speaking about thirty minutes.—La Crosse Republican.

Riding in Central Park is the great feature for Saturdays in New York. Sometimes 4000 vehicles enter that magnificent enclosure in a single day, besides equestrians and foot-walkers almost without number. By actual count, the number of visitors occasionally reaches full 20,000 a day, but is exceedingly variable, depending not only on the state of the weather, but upon the day of the week. The architectural works with which the Park abounds, surpass, in some instances, anything to be found elsewhere in the city. At the grand Terrace, which commands a view of the lake, at the mall, there has already been expended $50,000, chiefly in masonry—and the expenditure yet contemplated at this point will perhaps double these figures.—The bridges erected over the water, or at the intersection of different roads, are most of them exquisite specimens of workmanship. One bridge cost as much as $26,000, and several others very considerable sums. The iron bridges, though less expensive, generally cost from $3000 to $6000. Special attention is now being devoted to the planting of large trees, for which the requisite machinery will be employed, after the manner adopted in France.

There has been performed at the prison, during the past season an immense amount of labor in the stone department. We understand that over THREE THOUSAND YARDS have been laid, of rough cut stone wall, with an average of less than fifty hands, including the quarrying and hauling of the stone—burning of the lime, and, in fine, everything connected with the building of the wall; excluding, also, the erection of two octogons. This is by far the largest amount of work that has been done in any previous session; and, must commend itself to the favorable attention of those citizens who take an interest in the character and improvement of this, our most important state institution; as well as the use to which the labor of our state convicts is applied; and we may add, the action of the administration having them in charge.—Waupun Prison City Item.

The Albany and Vermont railroad is the first instance in which a railroad has been abandoned and the rails removed. The removal was going on at the rate of a mile a day, when stopped by injunction.

ATTENTION
Wide Awakes!

There will be a meeting of the Wide Awakes on Saturday evening at 7½ o'clock.

An Excursion to Milwaukee

to unite in the reception of

is proposed. Let every member be present, so that it may be known how many are going, and that preparations may be made for the trip.

A. B. McLEAN, Captain.

A NEW BELL.—Our citizens have been greeted for a day or two with the pleasant sound of a new church bell, in the tower of the Congregational Church. It is one of the new amalgum bells, and the largest in the city, weighing 1700 lbs; with the yoke and other fixtures, the weight is about 2000 pounds.

CONFIRMATION.—There will be a confirmation in Christ Church on Sunday morning next. In view of this it is desirable that all the candidates be present this (Friday) evening at 7½ o'clock to attend the closing lecture, and to make necessary arrangements.

RELIGIOUS SERVICE.—Rev. S. C. Bulkley will preach in the court room on Sunday morning next, at the usual hour. This sermon closes his engagement with the society of this city, and is the last prior to his removal to Illinois. We understand the society at Napierville has secured his services for the ensuing year. We congratulate our Universalist friends of that place, as Mr. Bulkley ranks among the ablest preachers in that denomination, is a gentleman and a scholar, and has by his christian walk and conversation, for the past two years, endeared himself to a large circle of friends, who will ever remember him with pleasure, and submit to his departure from among them with regret.

REACHED THE WEST.—The fatal sore throat disease among children (diptheria) is prevailing in some parts of Du Page and Kane counties, Illinois. We learn that one family at Downer's Grove, Du Page county, has lost five children by the disease.

Papers in Winnebago county, in the same state, make mention of its prevelance there. Rockford has suffered a number of losses already, and there are many children now dangerously sick with it. Some of our exchanges state that new yeast, taken internally, is a sure remedy against its fatality.

☞ A tea meeting will take place in P. M. Church, on Monday, Oct. 22d, on behalf of the Rev. John Sharpe. Tickets to be had of George Nutley and at the door for 25cts. Tea on the table at 7 o'clock.—All are invited to attend. oct18d2d.

☞ An encouraging feature in the improvement of the times is, the scarcity of houses to rent. There is not one to be had now where there were half-a-dozen three months since. Every empty house finds an applicant, and the only cause of their remaining empty is the high rent.

☞ There was an alarm of fire last night. It turned out to be a straw stack on fire several miles out of town.

☞ Six of the extensive ice houses of Messrs. Joy & Frisbie, at Crystal Lake, were entirely destroyed by fire Wednesday. They contained 18,000 tons of ice. Loss, $40,000; insured $29,000.

DEMOCRATIC ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.—The democratic convention to nominate a candidate for the assembly for this district is called to meet next Monday at the court room. It will be a delegate convention.

BUT ONE BALLOT.—Secretary Harvey informs us that but one ballot will be used in the election this fall. The Presidential Electors, Congressional, Legislative, and County tickets all being voted on one ballot. —Madison Patriot.

Unless the electoral vote is first counted and announced, the canvass of the vote will be a long one, and the telegraph will be delayed in reporting the returns. We see it suggested that the inspectors first count the electoral vote, and if this is done, the public anxiety for early news will be gratified.

ACCIDENT.—As the through freight train bound east last night, on the La C. & M. R. R., was starting from Mauston station, a brakeman named H. G. Baxter, in attempting to get upon the train, while in motion, missed his footing and fell on the track, the cars passing over him and killing him instantly. He has friends residing at Kilbourn City, Wis., where his remains are to be interred.—Free Democrat.

SAD AFFAIR.—We are pained in the obligation to record a sad accident which befell Charles Search, and others, as they were engaged in firing the cannon yesterday morning. At the second time of firing, before the charge was rammed home, the powder exploded, and blowed Mr. Search three or four rods down the hill, breaking all the bones of his arm, and burning his breast and other parts of his body in a very serious manner. It is hoped that he will survive, although he must lose his arm.

George Dickenson lost a finger or two by the same explosion; and Major Throupe, who was thumbing the gun, lost the end of his thumb. The accident was occasioned by its not being thoroughly swabbed out before the charge was put in.—Racine Journal.

The son of Mr. Bradbury, of the eminent firm of Messrs. Bradbury & Evans, the well known publishers of London, lately committed suicide in an extraordinary manner. One night he visited the celebrated Cremorne gardens, and after getting silver for a ten pound note he went to a stand and scattered it amongst the crowd. He then called for a glass of grog emptied into it a phial of prussic acid, made a speech, and proposing the health of the company, drank off his glass and fell dead in the midst of the dancers and riotous assemblage.

He was a young man of ability and promise, and recently received a gold watch from the Emperor of the French, in acknowledgment of the value of an improvement he had made in printing.

In early youth perhaps women said to themselves, "I shall be happy when I have a husband to love me best of all;" then, when the husband was too careless, "My child will comfort me;" then, through the mother's watching and toil, "My child will repay me all when it grows up." And at last, after the long journey of years has been traveled through, the mother's heart is weighed by a heavier burden, and her only hope is in heaven.

ILLINOISAN WHIPPED TO DEATH IN TEXAS.—Frederick Amthor, a highly respectable German, was recently driven out of Texas on the most frivolous pretences. He was a democrat, and was suspected of abolitionism because he did not worship the negro! In a letter to the Chicago Press he relates the outrages he was visited with, and the attempts to take his life by pro-slavery mobs which ended in his expulsion from the state, and he thus describes the abominable murder of an inoffensive citizen of Illinois. Mr. Amthor says:

A young man from Illinois, by the name of Evans, came to Henderson, and while there was incautious enough to say that he thought slavery was wrong. These statements, so far as I have heard them, he made in the mildest manner, and that only when pressed into the subject by the young men about town. I am satisfied that he never said or thought of saying anything except when conversation on the subject was forced upon him.

I had but slight acquaintance with the young man, but I told him that he ought not to allow himself to be dragged into talking on the subject. But he was not careful. In December last this young man was taken out by a mob, without a trial of any kind, and whipped to death. The Henderson New Era, a paper published in Henderson, justified the infamous murder on the ground that Evans was a common thief, an abolitionist, &c. I was shown the whip which I was informed had been the instrument of his death. It was covered with blood. I also saw what I was informed was the dead body of Evans, about three-quarters of a mile from town. It was so decayed and swollen that I did not recognize it. The hogs and buzzards were eating it. It had never been buried.

A SHREWD BET ON ELECTIONS.—The Springfield Republican reports a bet which we think is as well worth recording as any other of these "signs of the times:"

"Look here," said a republican to a noisy Bell man, "I will bet you one hundred dollars that I can name fifteen states that that Lincoln will get; and then I will bet five hundred more that I can name five additional states that will go for Lincoln."—The republican then named the fifteen slave states as those upon which he proposed to risk the hundred dollars, and Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont and Wisconsin as the five additional states upon which he proposed to risk the five hundred.

The Bell man rubbed his eyes, and since the Pennsylvania election, if not before, looks for a net loss of four hundred dollars as the cost of this lesson in political betting. It may be safely said that there is now one convert to the folly of this form of political betting.

If we were asked what physician stood at the top of his profession, we should say that it was the gentleman who was in the habit of attending "patients on a monument."

A negress, speaking of her children said of one who was lighter colored than the rest: "I nebber could bear dat ar' brat, kase he show dirt so easy."

"Occasional," speaking of Mr. Buchanan's appearance in the columns of the New York Ledger, says that the President has repeatedly intimated his determination to write a memoir of his own times, after he retires to private life. It is not his intention to print it during his lifetime. He is a man of singular order, and has preserved a vast mass of MSS. which, if he should put into shape for publication, would, no doubt, be a rare bonne bouche for the politician and the general reader.

The mechanics and laborers in the Charlestown Navy Yard, Mass., were assessed twelve hundred dollars, to be used against the republicans in the Pennsylvania state election. Even the common laborers, who get but a dollar and a quarter per day, were compelled to subscribe. The sailmakers' gang unanimously refused to submit to the extortion.

NO CHANCE FOR DOUGLAS.—The Madison Argus, a Breckinridge organ, says:

The chance for Douglas ever to be President has passed away. His running this time has been a mere experiment on the public credulity and the public patience.—The result is as apparent as if it were already announced, and the votes of next month had been counted. He will not carry an electoral vote except by fusion with other parties, and even then the chances are slim and doubtful. Douglas is out of the question. The recent elections have made it as certain that he cannot carry a state as that the election will be held. Nobody is sanguine enough to expect it. The most "crazy for Douglas" do not pretend, even in boasting, that he has a ghost of a show.

This retribution is as righteous as is the certainty that it will fall upon him. He is the reckless and vulgar assassin by whom the great American democracy if it be doomed to death will fall. That he is the first victim who falls beneath its ruins is just and deserved.

There are now in the field virtually but two candidates for the Presidency. These and Breckinridge and Lincoln. Between them the issue lies.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, BY BUMP & GRAY, GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, OCTOBER 19, 1860.

Receipts of wheat were about the same to-day as yesterday and there was no material change in prices.—Millers seemed anxious for best samples at 81@84c and shippers purchased freely at 78@80c for fair to good dry shipping grades. Poor, damp and shrunken wheat sells at reduced rates. Receipts of coarse grains light and prices unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 80a90c; good to choice milling [spring 81a84; common to fair shipping 77a80; poor, damp and shrunken 65a75c.

OATS—declined to 16a17c per bushel.

RYE—in fair request at 37½a42c per 60 lbs.

CORN—old shelled at 30a32c per 60 lbs. New in ear 18a22 per 70 lbs.

TIMOTHY SEED—in good demand at 1,65a1,90 per 46 lbs.

BARLEY—ranges at 45a50c per 50 lbs., for good samples, and 25a30c for common.

POTATOES—plenty at 20a25c per bushel.

BUTTER—wanted at 13a16c fair to choice roll and jar.

EGGS—wanted at 9a10c per dozen.

HIDES—Green, 5 to 6; Dry, flint, 10 to 12.

FLOUR—spring at 2,50, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—dressed turkeys, 7a8; [chickens, 6a7; live chickens 12½c each.

WOOL—ranges at 25a40c per pound for common to best clips, with but very little coming forward.

Chicago Market.

Thursday evening, October 18th.

The wheat market to day was heavy, and prices declined 2a2½c per bushel. About 160,000 bushels were sold, at 89a90c for northwestern club, 92a96c for extra club, 85½a87 for No. 1, 82½a84½c for No. 2, and 76a77c for rejected. No. 1 corn, 37a 38, No. 2, 36a36½c.—New corn is very dull. Oats were quiet at 17½c in store; Rye 1a1½c lower, with sales of No. 1 at 50c in store; Barley quiet and heavy. Highwines 19a19¼.—Timothy seed unchanged—$2,07a2,20 being the range of quotations. Broom corn is dull, except for prime parcels.

There was a fair shipping demand for flour, and the market was steady. About 2,300 bbls changed hands at $4,15a5,00 for low grade to very choice spring extras; $6,00 for choice white winter; and $4,00 for good super'

Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phœnix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phœnix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying

S. S. NORTHROP, of Clinton.

DEMOCRATIC ROWDYISM AT WATERTOWN. —Last Monday evening there was a large meeting of republicans at Watertown, to hear Mr. Grow of Pennsylvania. He, however, did not arrive, in season. There were about 400 Wide Awakes present, and while proceeding peaceably through the streets, they were assaulted by a band of rowdy Douglas men, who threw stones and billets of wood at them. One republican was badly hurt by these missels, when the rowdies were charged upon and "cleaned out" by the Wide Awakes.

The Republican says:

Messrs. Billinghurst, Holmes, Barber and Enos addressed the people from a balcony. They were continually interrupted by the democratic crowd. During the speeches, stones and clubs were thrown among the republicans, in many cases knocking men down. Laying aside all questions of political difference, it does seem as though it was the duty of the people to change the officers of the county. Not a single arrest was made in the mob during the evening, although several democratic officers were present and must have seen some of the numerous assaults made upon the Wide Awakes, who peaceably marched the street.

☞ The republicans had a rousing meeting at Fort Atkinson on Saturday. Gov. Randall and Judge Howe were the speakers. The Standard says that five weeks ago there was not a Wide Awake company in the county; now there are six or seven companies. The number of Wide Awakes at this meeting was 650.

The Sandusky Register says that the indications pretty clearly determine that a fusion has been agreed upon by the Bell-Douglas leaders in Ohio.—Exchange.

Suppose there has been—there was a complete fusion against Judge Brinkerhoff, still he is elected by 20,000 majority.

MORE KIDNAPPING.—The Dubuque Herald states that Wilder, the supposed kidnapper of Jerry Boyd and family of Galena, has been twice in that city with a view of procuring colored help for his farm.—He arrived there about seven weeks ago, and engaged Mrs. Mary Savalla and a colored man whom he took off with him, since which time nothing has been heard of them.

There is but little doubt that Jerry Boyd was murdered and his family carried off and sold into slavery in Missouri, by this villain Wilder.

☞ If the people of a territory, which belongs to the whole country, ought to govern themselves and do as they please, as Douglas pretends, why did the Kansas-Nebraska bill intervene and deprive them of the power of electing their governor and their judges? If the people of a territory are sovereign, what right has congress to pass laws for them at all, regulating the manner of instituting their territorial government, and telling them when they shall form a state constitution, and how it shall be submitted to the people for their decision?

Will some crazy popular sovereignty Douglasite answer?

A Hudson correspondent of the Dunn County Lumberman, says, "set St. Croix county down for 250 majority for the republicans this fall."

A member of the Knowall Discussion Forum has propounded the following:—"When an irresistible body meets an immovable body, what is the consequence?"

The Troubled Waters of the Democracy.

The democracy, of all stripes and hues, are in deep trouble about these days. They see "Old Abe" looming up in the west, and their knees tremble as a sudden fear creeps over them. The 6th of November is hastening on—the 4th of March follows—and after that, no more office, no more revellings in the treasury, no more power!

In their misfortunes, they fall to cursing each other. Gov. Letcher of Virginia has been at Washington, and he curses ferociously at the condition of affairs. The Bell-Everett party damn their luck; the Douglasites are too full to speak, they cannot do the subject justice; the Breckinridge men are cooler than the others, but they cannot forego the occasion to give the two other factions "hail Columbia," for not fusing in one or two large states, so that there might be no election by the people. Then that stupid old dolt from Oregon, Lane, would be elected by the senate, and the power would continue, for a time, with the Bourbons of the south.

It is even rumored that propositions have been made to drop all the opposition candidates, and nominate a new independent candidate. IT IS TOO LATE, as was said to the Duke of Orleans after the republic was declared in France. It is too late, for fusions for new nominations, for any new programme—the people cannot be managed. They will have a change in the administration of the country. It is so written, and the signs of the times prove it. The only wise course for our opponents is to submit gracefully—acquiesce in what cannot be helped.

But they won't take this advice. They now shout that New York must be carried, and all eyes are turned towards the Empire State. The leader of the Satanic hosts, the Herald, gives up every thing, outside of the state of New York, but with money enough, it hopes that New York may retrieve the field. It begs of the merchants of New York city to raise one million of dollars to beat Lincoln. But money won't save them, though they had thousands to offer for every vote. It is well that the last charge of the enemy, before Waterloo overwhelms, is to be made upon New York. It is precisely what the brave and true republicans of that state desire, above all things. They will do their duty when the hour comes, and Seward's prediction of SIXTY THOUSAND republican majority for ABRAHAM LINCOLN, in the Empire State, will be verified.

ENTHUSIASTIC DEMOCRATIC DEMONSTRATION IN THE FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—We are informed by an eye-witness, that on yesterday, pursuant to public notice, the democracy of Walworth were to be addressed by J. E. Arnold and Mat. H. Carpenter, at Elkhorn. Mr. Arnold appeared, but Mat knew better and sent an excuse in the shape of Mr. Palmer of Milwaukee.

On the arrival of the train, the speakers were met at the depot by 27 boys, ranging from 7 to 15 years of age, each provided with cap and torch, and understood to be the Elkhorn Douglas Volunteers, and who were advertised to give a torch light exhibition. They had a drum and fife, and were accompanied by 24 men in citizen's dress. This was the number, by actual count, in the procession as they marched from the cars to the hotel. The speakers looked mortified, and well they might feel so, for a more woe-begone looking set than those in the escort, you would not find in a day's travel.

It was the day of the county convention, but the posters, notices, and the convention, all failed to bring any crowd. No one seemed to take any interest in the convention or speakers. It was worse than the morning reception of Mr. Douglas by the Giants from Green county. A few more such gatherings and the friends of the "Little Giant" will give up the effort in southern Wisconsin to preserve their organization. They are on their last legs; their coat tails are too near the ground, and with an inclination towards the dirt.

ATTACK ON THE WIDE AWAKES OF WHEELING, VA.—The Wide Awakes of Wheeling, Va., turned out on the night of the 11th, in procession. A crowd of ruffians attacked them with stones and other missiles, but not succeeded in breaking up the procession, the streets were blocked with draws and other obstructions. The Wide Awakes removed these obstacles, when the ruffians rushed on them. A fight ensued, and shots were fired, the Wide Awakes laying about them with their torches. The Intelligencer says:

"If these ruffians suppose that they can prevent the Wide Awakes from turning out, when and where they please, they are mistaken. If the city is under the control of a lawless set of ignorant, intolerant rascals, who thus endanger the peace and property of the city and the lives of its men, women and children, the Wide Awakes are not responsible."

There are now three large and well organized companies of Wide Awakes in Wheeling, and they are composed of the sort of men who understand how to "hoe their own row."

The Springfield State Register, Douglas' central organ in Illinois says the "Americans" voted with the republicans and that Pennsylvania and Indiana were thus carried.

Douglas himself declares that the Breckinridge party of those states voted with the republicans, and thus accounts for the results.

The Pennsylvanian, on the contrary, says that the Douglas men voted for Curtin and elected him. These contradictory stories prove that they are all mistaken—that it was the people who are tired of all these miserable factions, who joined the republicans and elected Curtin.

MORE DEMOCRATIC ROWDYISM.—As a little boy by the name of Clark, a son of Aaron Clark, was in the procession of the Wide Awakes in Racine, on Monday evening, a brick was thrown into the crowd, and he was struck on the head back of the ear and badly hurt. It is such acts as these perpetrated by those who must be democrats that give character to the democratic party.

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

Colonel Hugh Forbes, whose name figured so extensively during the John Brown excitement, and latterly has been in the employ of Garibaldi at Mezzina, in Sicily, is said to be out of office once more. He was found to be incompetent and impracticable, a disturber of the peace, and an oppressor of the officers under him; therefore, he has been superceded, and goes about Sicily denouncing Garibaldi and Victor Emanuel.

The Chicago, Alton and St. Louis railroad company refused to carry republicans to the Seward demonstration in Chicago, but carried Douglas men to see the "Little Giant" at reduced fare.

THE VIRGINIA SCARE.—The Boston Journal says: "As we suspected, the reported negro plot in Prince Anne county, Va., turns out to be a 'scare.' Though a number of arrests have been made, the Norfolk Herald of Monday, admits that the evidence is weak. It says that the revelations of the negroes arrested are highly improbable. Whatever alarm was at first experienced has subsided, and the country is all quiet."

Hon. Bertine Pinckney is the captain of a Wide Awake club formed at Rosendale, Fond du Lac county, by the farmers of that region.

John M. Botts, in his speech at Richmond, proposed, in case Lincoln is elected, to take the contract to fill all his appointments from South Carolina.

An Iowa farmer who failed to sell his land last spring at $20 per acre, netted $23 per acre from the prolific crop he has just harvested. That is rather better than selling out.

A bear weighing two hundred and thirty pounds was shot near Rome, New York, last week.

It is said that the state of Michigan, which made its deposits in the Artizan's Bank of New York, will lose a large amount by the failure of that institution.

By a late copy of the Denver Evening News, we see that Jack Langrishe has just opened a theatre in that outpost of gold hunters. He had a large company of actors with him.

The Toledo Blade has seen but one democrat who took the result of the Pennsylvania election "easy." He was hurrahing for Jackson!

The official report shows that 19,364 Wide Awakes participated in the grand parade in New York.

☞ The richest man in St. Louis is Jas. H. Lucas, banker, worth, it said, $7,000,000. Peter Lindell's estate is put down at $4,000,000. That of Benoist, banker, at $1,500,000.

The democratic nomination for the state senate in Winnebago county has been tendered successively to Curtis Reed, Gabriel Bouck and Eli Stillson, and declined by each, as neither aspire to the honor of a defeat.

A "hooped skirt" arrangement has been adopted by male dandies, to be worn on the chest for the laudable purpose of preventing the rumpling of the shirt bosom. It is formed of steel ribs, and is fastened around the body by means of hooks and eyes.

The choir of Trinity Church, New York, made its first appearance in surplices, on Sunday before last.

Tom Thumb has joined the Little Giant club at Bridgeport, Conn.

Mr. Herschel V. Johnson promised to address the fusionists of Buffalo on Wednesday evening last, but he didn't appear; the occasion was too solemn.

The National Inteligencer is quoting from the electioneering literature of 1844, which predicted the destruction of the Union if Henry Clay was elected, to show the fallacy of similar predictions now.

The Chicago and Northwestern road has bought the iron for the extension of the road to Appleton. The payment is to be made in bonds at eighty per cent. for iron at $43 per ton.

Patrick McGinnis, Eden, Fond du Lac county, had his leg broken on Saturday night last, by falling from his wagon and being run over by the wheels.

Hon. S. W. Beal, who has just returned from Pike's Peak, says he has turned in for Abe Lincoln.

MINUS 1,000.—There was a mistake made in the publication of the official vote of Philadelphia at the recent election, in the papers of that city. The democratic majority, instead of being 2,886 is only 1,886.

On Sunday night of last week, a negro in attempting to escape with some stolen bacon, (the owner being in pursuit,) jumped down a precipice thirty feet high and was instantly killed, in Lynchburgh, Va.

Barnum's Museum, New York, narrowly escaped destruction on Wednesday night, one of the transparencies taking fire.

THE LATE SYRIAN MASSACRES.—The Druses have published a formal vindication of their recent conduct. They claim that the blame rests with the Maronites. They affirm that the Maronites have for years been laying plots to expel them from Lebanon, and that their own course was only in self-defense.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—Philander Everson, an old and much respected citizen of Lake Mills, was instantly killed on Saturday night last by being thrown from his wagon. He was returning from the republican meeting at Jefferson, when his wagon struck a stump in the road with such force as to throw out his wife and child, when his team ran away throwing him against a fence. His loss is much lamented by the citizens of Lake Mills.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Mrs. Peter Patton (an Irish woman,) was caught by an upright revolving shaft in the "Farmer's & Merchant's Mill," of Monroe, on Saturday last and badly wounded—probably killed, says the Monroe Sentinel. Mrs. Patton was whirled round and round at the rate of 100 revolutions to the minute—the left arm and hand broken, left knee dislocated and broken, head and face badly bruised, and a lacerated incision through the integuments and into the abdominal muscles of the left side some five or six inches long.

MESSRS. MCKEE & FISHBACK:—Returns from the various county organizations and clubs, to this office, show a republican strength in this state of thirty-eight thousand five hundred votes. If the news from the October elections in the east should prove to be such as we hope for and expect, this state is certain for Lincoln. On this you may rely.

WM. RABE, Sec'y.

HON. LUTHER HANCHETT AT LA CROSSE.—On Saturday evening, the Wide-Awakes of La Crosse had a gay turn-out; and, after a splendid street-parade, called at the Augusta House and escorted Mr. Hanchett, the republican candidate for congress, to Barron's Hall, where, a good audience of ladies and gentlemen were assembled. The hall was full to overflowing. The glee club contributed to the interest of the evening by several excellent songs. Mr. Hanchett, whose health is very poor, made a speech of great power; and impressed the audience favorably, by his compactness, solidity and grasp of thought, and by his earnest and manly style of speech. He is a vigorous-minded man, and will be respected in congress. Mr. Hanchett has been urged, by good medical advisers, to avoid public speaking, until his lungs recover strength. While speaking he was again admonished of the danger of disobeying that advice, and was obliged to discontinue his able speech after speaking about thirty minutes.—La Crosse Republican.

Riding in Central Park is the great feature for Saturdays in New York. Sometimes 4000 vehicles enter that magnificent enclosure in a single day, besides equestrians and foot walkers almost without number. By actual count, the number of visitors occasionally reaches full 20,000 a day, but is exceedingly variable, depending not only on the state of the weather, but upon the day of the week. The architectural works with which the Park abounds, surpass, in some instances, anything to be found elsewhere in the city. At the grand Terrace, which commands a view of the lake, at the mall, there has already been expended $50,000, chiefly in masonry—and the expenditure yet contemplated at this point will perhaps double these figures. The bridges erected over the water, or at the intersection of different roads, are most of them exquisite specimens of workmanship. One bridge cost as much as $26,000, and several others very considerable sums. The iron bridges, though less expensive, generally cost from $3000 to $6000. Special attention is now being devoted to the planting of large trees, for which the requisite machinery will be employed, after the manner adopted in France.

There has been performed at the prison, during the past season an immense amount of labor in the stone department. We understand that over THREE THOUSAND YARDS have been laid, of rough cut stone wall, with an average of less than fifty hands, including the quarrying and hauling of the stone—burning of the lime, and, in fine, everything connected with the building of the wall, excluding, also, the erection of two octagons. This is by far the largest amount of work that has been done in any previous session; and, must commend itself to the favorable attention of those citizens who take an interest in the character and improvement of this, our most important state institution; as well as the use to which the labor of our state convicts is applied; and, we may add, the action of the administration having them in charge.—Waupun Prison City Item.

The Albany and Vermont railroad is the first instance in which a railroad has been abandoned and the rails removed. The removal was going on at the rate of a mile a day, when stopped by injunction.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

ATTENTION
Wide Awakes!

There will be a meeting of the Wide Awakes on Saturday evening at 7½ o'clock.

An Excursion to Milwaukee

to unite in the reception of

CARL SCHURZ,

is proposed. Let every member be present, so that it may be known how many are going, and that preparations may be made for the trip.

A. B. McLEAN, Captain.

A NEW BELL.—Our citizens have been greeted for a day or two with the pleasant sound of a new church bell, in the tower of the Congregational Church. It is one of the new amalgum bells, and the largest in the city, weighing 1700 lbs; with the yoke and other fixtures, the weight is about 2000 pounds.

CONFIRMATION.—There will be a confirmation in Christ Church on Sunday morning next. In view of this it is desirable that all the candidates be present this (Friday) evening at 7½ o'clock to attend the closing lecture, and to make necessary arrangements.

RELIGIOUS SERVICE.—Rev. S. C. Bulkley will preach in the court room on Sunday morning next, at the usual hour. This sermon closes his engagement with the society of this city, and is the last prior to his removal to Illinois. We understand the society at Napierville has secured his services for the ensuing year. We congratulate our Universalist friends of that place, as Mr. Bulkley ranks among the ablest preachers in that denomination, is a gentleman and a scholar, and has by his christian walk and conversation, for the past two years, endeared himself to a large circle of friends, who will ever remember him with pleasure, and submit to his departure from among them with regret.

REACHED THE WEST.—The fatal sore throat disease among children (diptheria) is prevailing in some parts of Du Page and Kane counties, Illinois. We learn that one family at Downer's Grove, Du Page county, has lost five children by the disease.

Papers in Winnebago county, in the same state, make mention of its prevelance there. Rockford has suffered a number of losses already, and there are many children now dangerously sick with it. Some of our exchanges state that new yeast, taken internally, is a sure remedy against its fatality.

☞ A tea meeting will take place in P. M. Church, on Monday, Oct. 22d, on behalf of the Rev. John Sharpe. Tickets to be had of George Nutley and at the door for 25cts. Tea on the table at 7 o'clock.—All are invited to attend. oct18d2d.

☞ An encouraging feature in the improvement of the times is, the scarcity of houses to rent. There is not one to be had now where there were half-a-dozen three months since. Every empty house finds an applicant, and the only cause of their remaining empty is the high rent.

☞ There was an alarm of fire last night. It turned out to be a straw stack on fire several miles out of town.

☞ Six of the extensive ice houses of Messrs. Joy & Frisbie, at Crystal Lake, were entirely destroyed by fire Wednesday. They contained 18,000 tons of ice. Loss, $40,000; insured $29,000.

DEMOCRATIC ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.—The democratic convention to nominate a candidate for the assembly for this district is called to meet next Monday at the court room. It will be a delegate convention.

BUT ONE BALLOT.—Secretary Harvey informs us that but one ballot will be used in the election this fall. The Presidential Electors, Congressional, Legislative, and County tickets all being voted on one ballot. —Madison Patriot.

Unless the electoral vote is first counted and announced, the canvass of the vote will be a long one, and the telegraph will be delayed in reporting the returns. We see it suggested that the inspectors first count the electoral vote, and if this is done, the public anxiety for early news will be gratified.

ACCIDENT.—As the through freight train bound east last night, on the La C. & M. R. R., was starting from Mauston station, a brakeman named H. G. Baxter, in attempting to get upon the train, while in motion, missed his footing and fell on the track, the cars passing over him and killing him instantly. He has friends residing at Kilbourn City, Wis., where his remains are to be interred.—Free Democrat.

SAD AFFAIR.—We are pained in the obligation to record a sad accident which befell Charles Search, and others, as they were engaged in firing the cannon yesterday morning. At the second time of firing, before the charge was rammed home, the powder exploded, and blowed Mr. Search three or four rods down the hill, breaking all the bones of his arm, and burning his breast and other parts of his body in a very serious manner. It is hoped that he will survive, although he must lose his arm.

George Dickenson lost a finger or two by the same explosion; and Major Throupe, who was thumbing the gun, lost the end of his thumb. The accident was occasioned by its not being thoroughly swabbed out before the charge was put in.—Racine Journal.

The son of Mr. Bradbury, of the eminent firm of Messrs. Bradbury & Evans, the well known publishers of London, lately committed suicide in an extraordinary manner. One night he visited the celebrated Cremorne gardens, and after getting silver for a ten pound note he went to a stand and scattered it amongst the crowd. He then called for a glass of grog emptied into it a phial of prussic acid, made a speech, and proposing the health of the company, drank off his glass and fell dead in the midst of the dancers and riotous assemblage.

He was a young man of ability and promise, and recently received a gold watch from the Emperor of the French, in acknowledgment of the value of an improvement he had made in printing.

In early youth perhaps women said to themselves, "I shall be happy when I have a husband to love me best of all;" then, when the husband was too careless, "My child will comfort me;" then, through the mother's watching and toil, "My child will repay me all when it grows up." And at last, after the long journey of years has been traveled through, the mother's heart is weighed by a heavier burden, and her only hope is in heaven.

ILLINOISAN WHIPPED TO DEATH IN TEXAS.—Frederick Amthor, a highly respectable German, was recently driven out of Texas on the most frivolous pretences. He was a democrat, and was suspected of abolitionism because he did not worship the negro! In a letter to the Chicago Press he relates the outrages he was visited with, and the attempts to take his life by pro-slavery mobs which ended in his expulsion from the state, and he thus describes the abominable murder of an inoffensive citizen of Illinois. Mr. Amthor says:

A young man from Illinois, by the name of Evans, came to Henderson, and while there was incautious enough to say that he thought slavery was wrong. These statements, so far as I have heard them, he made in the mildest manner, and that only when pressed into the subject by the young men about town. I am satisfied that he never said or thought of saying anything except when conversation on the subject was forced upon him.

I had but slight acquaintance with the young man, but I told him that he ought not to allow himself to be dragged into talking on the subject. But he was not careful. In December last this young man was taken out by a mob, without a trial of any kind, and whipped to death. The Henderson New Era, a paper published in Henderson, justified the infamous murder on the ground that Evans was a common thief, an abolitionist, &c. I was shown the whip which I was informed had been the instrument of his death. It was covered with blood. I also saw what I was informed was the dead body of Evans, about three-quarters of a mile from town. It was so decayed and swollen that I did not recognize it. The hogs and buzzards were eating it. It had never been buried.

A SHREWD BET ON ELECTIONS.—The Springfield Republican reports a bet which we think is as well worth recording as any other of these "signs of the times:"

"Look here," said a republican to a noisy Bell man, "I will bet you one hundred dollars that I can name fifteen states that that Lincoln will get; and then I will bet five hundred more that I can name five additional states that will go for Lincoln."—The republican then named the fifteen slave states as those upon which he proposed to risk the hundred dollars, and Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont and Wisconsin as the five additional states up on which he proposed to risk the five hundred.

The Bell man rubbed his eyes, and since the Pennsylvania election, if not before, looks for a net loss of four hundred dollars as the cost of this lesson in political betting. It may be safely said that there is now one convert to the folly of this form of political betting.

If we were asked what physician stood at the top of his profession, we should say that it was the gentleman who was in the habit of attending "patients on a monument."

A negress, speaking of her children said of one who was lighter colored than the rest: "I nebber could bear dat ar' brat, kase he show dirt so easy."

"Occasional," speaking of Mr. Buchanan's appearance in the columns of the New York Ledger, says that the President has repeatedly intimated his determination to write a memoir of his own times, after he retires to private life. It is not his intention to print it during his lifetime. He is a man of singular order, and has preserved a vast mass of MSS. which, if he should put into shape for publication, would, no doubt, be a rare bonne bouche for the politician and the general reader.

The mechanics and laborers in the Charlestown Navy Yard, Mass., were assessed twelve hundred dollars, to be used against the republicans in the Pennsylvania state election. Even the common laborers, who get but a dollar and a quarter per day, were compelled to subscribe. The sailmakers' gang unanimously refused to submit to the extortion.

NO CHANCE FOR DOUGLAS.—The Madison Argus, a Breckinridge organ, says:

The chance for Douglas ever to be President has passed away. His running this time has been a mere experiment on the public credulity and the public patience.—The result is as apparent as if it were already announced, and the votes of next month had been counted. He will not carry an electoral vote except by fusion with other parties, and even then the chances are slim and doubtful. Douglas is out of the question. The recent elections have made it as certain that he cannot carry a state as that the election will be held. Nobody is sanguine enough to expect it. The most "crazy for Douglas" do not pretend, even in boasting, that he has a ghost of a show.

This retribution is as righteous as is the certainty that it will fall upon him. He is the reckless and vulgar assassin by whom the great American democracy if it be doomed to death will fall. That he is the first victim who falls beneath its ruins is just and deserved.

There are now in the field virtually but two candidates for the Presidency. These and Breckinridge and Lincoln. Between them the issue lies.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, BY BUMP & GRAY, GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, OCTOBER 19, 1860

Receipts of wheat were about the same to-day as yesterday and there was no material change in prices.—Millers seemed anxious for best samples at 81@84c and shippers purchased freely at 78@80c for fair to good dry shipping grades. Poor, damp and shrunken wheat sells at reduced rates. Receipts of coarse grains light and prices unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 80a90c; good to choice milling spring 81a84, common to fair shipping 77a80; poor, damp and shrunken 65a75c.

OATS—declined to 16a17c per bushel.

RYE—in fair request at 37½a42c per 60 lbs.

CORN—old shelled at 30a32c per 60 lbs. New in ear 18a22 per 70 lbs.

TIMOTHY SEED—in good demand at 1,65a1,90 per 46 lbs.

BARLEY—ranges at 45a50c per 50 lbs., for good samples, and 25a30c for common.

POTATOES—plenty at 20a25c per bushel.

BUTTER—wanted at 13a16c fair to choice roll and jar.

EGGS—wanted at 9a10c per dozen.

HIDES—Green, 5 to 6; Dry, flint, 10 to 12.

FLOUR—spring at 2,50, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—dressed turkeys, 7a8; [chickens, 6a7; live chickens 12½c each.

WOOL—ranges at 25a40c per pound for common to best clips, with but very little coming forward.

Chicago Market.

Thursday evening, October 18th.

The wheat market to day was heavy, and prices declined 2a2½c per bushel. About 150,000 bushels were sold, at 89a90c for northwestern club, 92a96c for extra club, 86½a87 for No. 1, 82½a84½c for No 2, and 76a77c for rejected. No. 1 corn, 37a 38, No. 2, 36a36½c.—New corn is very dull. Oats were quiet at 17½c in store; Rye 1a1½c lower, with sales of No. 1 at 50c in store; Barley quiet and heavy. Highwines 19a19½c.—Timothy seed unchanged—$2.07a2,20 being the range of quotations. Broom corn is dull, except for prime parcels.

There was a fair shipping demand for flour, and the market was steady. About 2,300 bbls changed hands at $4,15a5,00 for low grade to very choice spring extras; $6.00 for choice white winter; and $4,00 for good super'

Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Phœnix Insurance Company, published in another column. This we consider one of the most reliable Insurance Companies in the country; and we think no one need have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ind.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assests now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business men and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and—continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you got a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words "he had no insurance" prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phœnix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Tell your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled, and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

ATTENTION Wide Awakes!

There will be a meeting of the Wide Awakes on Saturday evening at 7½ o'clock.

An Excursion to Milwaukee

to unite in the reception of

CARL SCHURZ,

is proposed. Let every member be present, so that it may be known how many are going, and that preparations may be made for the trip.

A. B. McLEAN, Captain.

A NEW BELL.—Our citizens have been greeted for a day or two with the pleasant sound of a new church bell, in the tower of the Congregational Church. It is one of the new amalgum bells, and the largest in the city, weighing 1700 lbs; with the yoke and other fixtures, the weight is about 2000 pounds.

CONFIRMATION.—There will be a confirmation in Christ Church on Sunday morning next. In view of this it is desirable that all the candidates be present this (Friday) evening at 7½ o'clock to attend the closing lecture, and to make necessary arrangements.

RELIGIOUS SERVICE.—Rev. S. C. Bulkley will preach in the court room on Sunday morning next, at the usual hour. This sermon closes his engagement with the society of this city, and is the last prior to his removal to Illinois. We understand the society at Napierville has secured his services for the ensuing year. We congratulate our Universalist friends of that place, as Mr. Bulkley ranks among the ablest preachers in that denomination, is a gentleman and a scholar, and has by his christian walk and conversation, for the past two years, endeared himself to a large circle of friends, who will ever remember him with pleasure, and submit to his departure from among them with regret.

REACHED THE WEST.—The fatal sore throat disease among children (diptheria) is prevailing in some parts of Du Page and Kane counties, Illinois. We learn that one family at Downer's Grove, Du Page county, has lost five children by the disease.

Papers in Winnebago county, in the same state, make mention of its prevalance there. Rockford has suffered a number of losses already, and there are many children now dangerously sick with it. Some of our exchanges state that new yeast, taken internally, is a sure remedy against its fatality.

☞ A tea meeting will take place in P. M. Church, on Monday, Oct. 22d, on behalf of the Rev. John Sharpe. Tickets to be had of George Nutley and at the door for 25cts. Tea on the table at 7 o'clock.—All are invited to attend. oct18d2d.

☞ An encouraging feature in the improvement of the times is, the scarcity of houses to rent. There is not one to be had now where there were half-a-dozen three months since. Every empty house finds an applicant, and the only cause of their remaining empty is the high rent.

☞ There was an alarm of fire last night. It turned out to be a straw stack on fire several miles out of town.

☞ Six of the extensive ice houses of Messrs. Joy & Frisbie, at Crystal Lake, were entirely destroyed by fire Wednesday. They contained 18,000 tons of ice. Loss, $40,000; insured $29,000.

DEMOCRATIC ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.—The democratic convention to nominate a candidate for the assembly for this district is called to meet next Monday at the court room. It will be a delegate convention.

BUT ONE BALLOT.—Secretary Harvey informs us that but one ballot will be used in the election this fall. The Presidential Electors, Congressional, Legislative, and County tickets all being voted on one ballot. —Madison Patriot.

Unless the electoral vote is first counted and announced, the canvass of the vote will be a long one, and the telegraph will be delayed in reporting the returns. We see it suggested that the inspectors first count the electoral vote, and if this is done, the public anxiety for early news will be gratified.

ACCIDENT.—As the through freight train bound east last night, on the La C. & M. R. R., was starting from Mauston station, a brakeman named H. G. Baxter, in attempting to get upon the train, while in motion, missed his footing and fell on the track, the cars passing over him and killing him instantly. He has friends residing at Kilbourn City, Wis., where his remains are to be interred.—Free Democrat.

SAD AFFAIR.—We are pained in the obligation to record a sad accident which befell Charles Search, and others, as they were engaged in firing the cannon yesterday morning. At the second time of firing, before the charge was rammed home, the powder exploded, and blowed Mr. Search three or four rods down the hill, breaking all the bones of his arm, and burning his breast and other parts of his body in a very serious manner. It is hoped that he will survive, although he must lose his arm.

George Dickenson lost a finger or two by the same explosion; and Major Thronpe, who was thumbing the gun, lost the end of his thumb. The accident was occasioned by its not being thoroughly swabbed out before the charge was put in.—Racine Journal.

The son of Mr. Bradbury, of the eminent firm of Messrs. Bradbury & Evans, the well known publishers of London, lately committed suicide in an extraordinary manner. One night he visited the celebrated Cremorne gardens, and after getting silver for a ten pound note, he went to a stand and scattered it amongst the crowd. He then called for a glass of grog emptied into it a phial of prussic acid, made a speech, and proposing the health of the company, drank off his glass and fell dead in the midst of the dancers and riotous assemblage.

He was a young man of ability and promise, and recently received a gold watch from the Emperor of the French, in acknowledgment of the value of an improvement he had made in printing.

In early youth perhaps women said to themselves, "I shall be happy when I have a husband to love me best of all;" then, when the husband was too careless, "My child will comfort me;" then, though the mother's watching and toil, "My child will repay me all when it grows up." And at last, after the long journey of years has been traveled through, the mother's heart is weighed by a heavier burden, and her only hope is in heaven.

ILLINOISAN WHIPPED TO DEATH IN TEXAS.—Frederick Anthon, a highly respectable German, was recently driven out of Texas on the most frivolous pretences. His persecutors charged him with being an abolitionist because he did not worship the negro! In a letter to the Chicago Press he relates the outrages he was visited with, and the attempts to take his life by pro-slavery mobs which ended in his expulsion from the state, and he thus describes the abominable murder of an inoffensive citizen of Illinois. Mr. Anthon says:

A young man from Illinois, by the name of Evans, came to Henderson, and while there was incautious enough to say that he thought slavery was wrong. These statements, so far as I have heard them, be made in the mildest manner, and that only when pressed into the subject by the young men about town. I am satisfied that he never said or thought of saying anything except when conversation on the subject was forced upon him.

I had but slight acquaintance with the young man, but I told him that he ought not to allow himself to be dragged into talking on the subject. But he was not careful. In December last this young man was taken out by a mob, without a trial of any kind, and whipped to death. The Henderson New Era, a paper published in Henderson, justified the infamous murder on the ground that Evans was a common thief, an abolitionist, &c., and was shown the whip which I was informed had been the instrument of his death. It was covered with blood. I also saw what I was informed was the dead body of Evans, about three-quarters of a mile from town. It was so decayed and swollen that I did not recognize it. The hogs and buzzards were eating it. It had never been buried.

A SMALL BET ON ELECTIONS.—The Springfield Republican reports a bet which we think is as well worth recording as any other of these "signs of the times":

"Look here," said a republican to a noisy Bell man, "I will bet you one hundred dollars that I can name fifteen states that that Lincoln will get; and then I will bet five hundred more that I can name five additional states that will go for Lincoln."—The republican then named the fifteen slave states as those upon which he proposed to risk the hundred dollars, and Maine, Massachusetts, New Hampshire, Vermont and Wisconsin as the five additional states upon which he proposed to risk the five hundred.

The Bell man rubbed his eyes, and since the Pennsylvania election, if not before, looks for a net loss of four hundred dollars as the cost of this lesson in political betting. It may be safely said that there is now one convert to the folly of this form of political betting.

If we were asked what physician stood at the top of his profession, we should say that it was the gentleman who was in the habit of attending "patients" on a monument."

A negress, speaking of her children said of one who was lighter colored than the rest: "I nebber could hear dat ar brat, kase he show dirt so easy."

"Occasional," speaking of Mr. Buchanan's appearance in the columns of the New York Ledger, says that the President has repeatedly intimated his determination to write a memoir of his own times, after he retires to private life. It is not his intention to print it during his lifetime. He is a man of singular order, and has preserved a vast mass of MSS which, if he should put into shape for publication, would, no doubt, be a rare bonne bouche for the politician and the general reader.

The mechanics and laborers in the Charlestown Navy Yard, Mass., were assessed twelve hundred dollars, to be used against the republicans in the Pennsylvania state election. Even the common laborers, who get but a dollar and a quarter per day, were compelled to subscribe. The sail makers' gang unanimously refused to submit to the extortion.

NO CHANCE FOR DOUGLAS.—The Madison Argus, a Breckinridge organ, says:

The chance for Douglas ever to be President has passed away. His running this time has been a mere experiment on the public credulity and the public patience.—The result is as apparent as if it were already announced, and the votes of next month had been counted. He will not carry an electoral vote except by fusion with other parties, and even then the chances are slim and doubtful. Douglas is out of the question. The recent elections have made it as certain that he cannot carry a state as that the election will be held. Nobody is sanguine enough to expect it. The most "crazy for Douglas" do not pretend, even in boasting, that he has a ghost of a show.

This retribution is as righteous as is the certainty that it will fall upon him. He is the reckless and vulgar assassin by whom the great American democracy is to be doomed to death will fall. That he is the first victim who falls beneath its ruins is just and deserved.

There are now in the field virtually but two candidates, for the Presidency. These and Breckinridge and Lincoln. Between them the issue lies.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, by

BUMP & GRAY,

GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, October 19, 1860.

Receipts of wheat were about the same to-day as yesterday and there was no material change in prices—Millers seemed anxious for best samples at 81@83c and shippers purchased freely at 77@80c for fair to good dry shipping grades. Poor, damp and shrunken wheat sells at reduced rates. Receipts of coarse grains light and prices unchanged.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 80@90c; good to choice milling spring 81@83c; common to fair shipping 77@80; poor, damp and shrunken 60@75c.

OATS—declined, to 15@17c per bushel.

RYE—in fair request at 57½@58c per 60 lbs.

CORN—old, shelled at 36@38c per 60 lbs. New in ear 18@22 per 70 lbs.

TIMOTHY SEED—in good demand at 1,65@1,90 per 46 lbs.

BARLEY—ranges at 45@50c per 50 lbs., for good samples, and 25@30c for common.

POTATOES—plenty at 20@25c per bushel.

BUTTER—wanted at 18@19c fair to choice roll and jar.

EGGS—wanted at 9@10c per dozen.

HIDES—Green, 5 to 6. Dry, flint, 10 to 12.

FLOUR—spring at 2,50@3,00 per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—dressed turkeys, 7@8c; chickens, 6@7; live chickens 12½@13c each.

WOOL—nineteen cents per pound for common to best clips, with but very little coming forward.

Chicago Market.

Thursday Evening, October 18th.

The wheat market to-day was heavy, and prices declined 2@2½c per bushel. About 150,000 bushels were sold, at 89@90c for northwestern spring, 92@93c for extra club, 85½@87½c for No. 1, 82½@84½c for No. 2, and 76@77c for rejected. No. 1 corn, 37@38, No. 2, 36@36½c. New corn is very stiff. Oats were quiet at 17½c in store; Rye half a cent lower, with sales of No. 1 at 50c in store. Barley quiet and heavy. Highwines 20@21c. Timothy seed unchanged—$2,07½@2,20 being the range of quotations. Broom corn in bulk except for prime parcels.

There was a fair shipping demand for flour, and the market was steady. About 3,300 bbls changed hands at $4,35@5,00 for low grade to very choice spring, and $5,00 for choice white winter, and $4,00 for good super

Royal Insurance Co. of Hartford.

We take pleasure in directing the attention of property-holders to the statement of the Royal Insurance Company published in another column. This one of the oldest Insurance Companies in this country, and we think no one will have the least hesitancy in effecting an insurance in it. Their exhibit shows conclusive evidence of its reliability. No one owning property should go without an insurance, and to such we recommend them to call on the agent and at once effect an insurance.—Home Journal, Ill.

Continental Insurance Company.

This prosperous corporation, in order to meet its present and growing wants, has just completed the purchase of the desirable property known as No. 102 Broadway and No. 1 Pine street. Possession will be given on or before the 1st of May next, when we learn a new and beautiful structure will at once be erected, suited to the requirements of the Company. No institution of a similar character in the nation, all things considered, can boast of such an unparallelled prosperity as can this. Commencing with a cash capital of half a million of dollars, it has steadily and rapidly grown, until its available assets now amount to about one million. The officers and directors are known all over the country as among the leading influential business and capitalists of this city. No better, safer, or stronger Insurance Company exists than the Continental. May it live and grow a thousand years, and continue to pay fat dividends.—New York Independent.

To the Public.

"Now is the accepted time"—to-morrow may be too late—delays are dangerous.—Have you a store of goods? Have you a dwelling house? Have you any insurable property? Go at once to Dimock's Agency and have it insured. Do not let the melancholy words, he had no insurance, prove applicable to your case in event of a sweeping fire.

NOTHING LIKE IT TO RESTORE A DOUBTFUL CREDIT.

It is greatly to the credit of any owner or occupant of a building to have placed conspicuously over his door, any of the following leading companies' house plates. The Home of New York. The Phœnix of Hartford. The Continental of New York. The Security of New York. The Merchants of Hartford, or the Northern of London, England. Is your credit at the Banks getting below par, up with one of these plates and you are all right at the Rock County, the Central or at Hoyt's.—Every passer-by will say "there is a sound business man." Ask your New York creditors that you insure your lake freights in the reliable Old Home, and your goods after their arrival in any of these incomparable companies and your orders will at all times be filled and at the lowest figures. A few more of these ornamental plates left at Dimock's Agency.

I desire to call the attention of the citizens of Janesville, and Rock county, more in detail to these well known, reliable and prompt paying

BENTON'S CIGARS!

THE PLACE TO FIND THEM.

New Establishment!

THE undersigned having dissolved by co-partnership existing between himself and W. F. Woodward, has the pleasure of announcing to the citizens of Janesville, the people of Rock county, and the world at large, that he has opened a

are themselves, and as he is now about his own boss, he is determined that they shall be better and more acceptable to the public than ever. The people will now know where to call and find all shapes of the choicest variety, may be found. BENTON'S IS THE PLACE. Give him a call.
